Lucky, Lucky

By Ben Rominske, minister

Maybe it is a number, a pair of socks, a set of actions. What do these have in common? They are all things people can find as lucky. Luck is “success or failure apparently brought by chance rather than through one’s own actions.” While this month of green is centered around St. Patrick’s day. The leprechaun and four leaf clovers are often seen as symbols of luck. We all know those people who win free trips or tickets and are just seemingly always fortunate.

There are plenty of songs written about luck as well but what does luck have to do with us this morning? In a time where luck may be on our minds more, I wanted to talk about it. As much as a person may be entangled with chance when it comes to God there is no luck, no game of chance. Ephesians 1:3-5 says, “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us for adoption to himself as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will”

It was not by accident that we were made and that Christ was sent to redeem us. Before the world was formed he had a plan for us. There are many things that happen in our lives which are unfortunate results of this fallen, sinful world. Yet the lack of luck with our Creator ought to instill us with confidence, joy, and strength. Hebrews 13:6 says, “So we can confidently say, “The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?” Luck has nothing to do with our salvation.
