From the Desk of Ben Rominske, minister

I figure that for everyone this number is random. You might be trying to recall if someone in the Bible lived that long or something to that effect. I would normally refer to such a length of time in years as it's only a little over two but I feel viewing it in days helps it sink in. At the time of writing, it had been 755 days since I got a call to pick up and come here. Just wow. Another thing you might not recall immediately is it has been two years to the week that we started resuming in person worship after the lockdown of 2020. With all of that in mind I want to give you all some things to consider.

7 is the number of perfection in the Bible and often shows completeness. Genesis 2:1-2 says, "Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done." Growth, especially spiritually, is not something we can rush and takes time as we strive to imitate our perfect Savior.

5 books make up the Law of Moses going from sin entering the world, God's promise carried through generations, to rescuing His people and bringing them to the promise land. God's loving kindness, His steadfastness is seen alongside His wrath and desire for Israel to fully commit to Him. The books lay out examples of men and women with great faith who also struggled with a whole host of things. It is a reminder of our own struggles in view of who the Lord God is.

5 of the ten virgins from Matthew 25 were wise and five were foolish. Those who were wise came prepared. Thus, when the bridegroom came they were let in and dined while the others were turned away. The number 755 is significant to me at this time recalling my coming here. The days will only increase but the principles mentioned are eternal. First and foremost we strive to follow the one who is complete and perfect. We are reminded of His nature in the midst of our human struggles in the first books of the Bible. Lastly, it is then our choice to be wise or foolish. I am exceedingly grateful for the time we have been together so far but look forward ever more to what God will accomplish here at Watterson Trail in the future.

For His Glory forever and ever Amen!
