THE YEAR TO COME

By Ben Rominske, minister

Another day, another year, I suppose! I have been praying for this day and this year ahead of us. I hope you have been doing the same. I know there are many thoughts, hopes, and prayers about what this year has in store for us. Many individually are going to be striving for various goals this year just as we as a congregation are. While you may know the number of those who fail New Year's resolutions, we as a church are not setting a resolution but rather striving to obey the Lord. I think there are a few passages we should focus on especially now, but always:

- ★ James 4:13-15—"Come now, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit'— yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. Instead you ought to say, 'If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that.'"
- ★ Matthew 6:34—"Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble."

I know it is far too simple for me to write the words do not worry just the same as it is for me to talk of our outreach and our various other works. If the Lord wills certainly we will strive to glorify God. I should be the first one to say I do not know the future, none of us do. It is in the uncertainty we must choose to lean on the Lord and His purposes, His will. Focus on the day to day, planning accordingly and spreading the Gospel whenever and wherever. I am still excited and ready to march towards what lies ahead. Won't you come with me?
