Guidance

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

Many at Watterson Trail are accustomed to using a physical map for trips. We are spoiled today with how advanced our phones are to not even need a separate device anymore. Still, we can miss the proper turn even with the voice telling us our turn is coming up. A trip, however, means you have a destination in mind.

Day to day our destinations change from our houses, jobs, a restaurant, or the doctor just to name a few. For those in person or online this morning, our destination was this gathering. Yet I hope this article makes us think of a higher destination, if you will. Philippians 3:19-21 says, "Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself."

Inevitably, whether young or old, we ought to be focused on that final destination. For those that are in Christ, such looking is filled with hope and joy as we know there will be no tears nor suffering up there. For those that are not in Christ, such a time of reflection may bring dread if their heart is honest to the truth of God's Word.

Heart hardened or not, I suggestion one source of guidance to all. God's inspired Word. Our Lord is unchanging and his plan for redemption through his Son has not changed either. Will you make the turn or miss it?

For Those Traveling

Dear Lord, the blessed one, you know how integral travel is to our lives. Many of our families live far and we long to see them. Many go on trips to enjoy the blessings you've provided. All the while we travel to and fro in our daily lives. We ask that you be with all those traveling, near and far. For safety and prudence along the way that they may make it to their destination unharmed. Amen.
