THANKS

We are only days away from Thanksgiving this year. I can fondly recall many memorable things my family did. Whether it was with my mother's cousins, my dad's family, or at my uncle's I enjoyed the time with my family. As I've mentioned to some, the plan is to go do some of those things this year.

As I grew up, my mother made sure I always said please and thank you and that I was grateful for whatever was given to me. To say thank you shows an appreciation to the recipient of the words. Oftentimes, we say thank you because something has been done for us. Maybe it was the person who opened the door for us or whoever put food on our plate.

We can say thank you and talk about what it means, but most of the time we do not get to understand the extent of how much what we have done impacts others or vice versa. Paul says in 2 Timothy 1:3 "I am thankful to God, whom I have served with a clear conscience as my ancestors did, when I remember you in my prayers as I do constantly night and day."

In thinking about this holiday which we so often verbalize our thanks, I want us to take a moment and reflect on what we truly are thankful for. Yes it's nice when people hold doors for us but focus on what we cherish. Dwell on the blessing the Lord God has given us in the people we have as brothers and sisters in Christ here and elsewhere.

MEMBERS

- Health: Ann Zeitz, JoNell Carter, Louis Massey, Faye Welter
- Anita Isenberg is home and continuing to improve. They welcome visitors any time.
- Denny Tennill is recovering in Baptist East following his procedure. See Ben for room info.
- Dan Dexter is still recovering though slowed a bit in his recovery
- Mike Davis is recovering well, but slow.
- Bettye Redding has a broken toe and brace as she recovers
- Myrtle Grasberger is home and doing some better.
- Tripp Frederick had a good birthday last week!

EXTENDED FAMILY & FRIENDS

- JCPS and First Responders people have been falsely reporting crimes at schools in the area. This then causes problems for the police, students, teachers, other faculty and responding personnel as well causes a lot of free and frustrations.
- Shooting incident there was a domestic incident last week with a family in the area. Prayers for all involved
- All those involved in the conflicts overseas
