HOLIDAY HELP

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

“35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36 I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’...40 “The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’” (Matthew 25:35-36, 40 NIV).

As we conclude this year with the holiday season, amidst various international conflicts and other economic matters in this country, I hope we truly can see how blessed we are. I think of passages like this one when we get opportunities to help and serve. While many may focus heavily on the judgement day scene, and we cannot forget that, I also cannot help but focus on the reality of verse 40 where there are “the least of these.”

I feel obligated to make it clear to any wondering, Jesus is talking about those who are less fortunate and in need. We said as a congregation we wanted to make a difference for those who really were in need and we have been blessed with such a wonderful opportunity through JCPS. Thank you to all those who have helped set this up, bought gifts for these children, and to those who will help prepare and hand them out Tuesday.

I have been overjoyed to see how much you all have been willing to step up and assist in helping these kids. You have been more than generous and I am excited for us to have this opportunity. But! A quick reminder, for all of us, we are helping these people because it is the right, Christian thing to do. We would love to build relationships with these families and study God’s Word with them if the opportunity comes. Additionally, none of us know what impact we will have, “So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone...” (Gal. 6:10a).
