LIGHTS & GIFTS

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

While we are away for this day, Lord willing, in various ways we will get to partake in similar activities as well as, and more importantly, assemble to worship the Lord. Outside our times of assembly, this holiday often has two main groups I want to address: lights and gifts. As I said, in various ways you may do both or only a portion of each. My family has long gone and looked at Christmas lights as well as given gifts. Even the trees, fake or real, we have set in our houses are arrayed with many lights. Of course underneath those trees, whether by family or Santa, are gifts!

I know many who will celebrate only gifts, gifts and Christ's birth, or none of it. Yet, with all the "magic" and "cheer" in the air, on the tv, or from our memories we can forget that lights and gifts are not reserved for Christmas time. In fact, every day is an opportunity to follow the light of the world, to shine our lights, to give to others, and to talk about what has been given to us!

Jesus says he is the light of the world (John 8:12) and we know we are to shine our lights (Matthew 5:16). We also know God gave His son, and Christ gave His life for all of us. It is interesting to me that in a time which has become quite commercialized, even the light shows and spending money on gifts can remind of the God Almighty. May we always be thankful for what was given on our behalf and the light we get to follow.
