Bulletin for the week of February 5, 2023 VOL 28/75 NO 6

Looking Back by Ben Rominske, minister

When you hear the words “looking back” maybe you think of checking behind you while driving or what action heroes do not do when they walk away from an explosion. You may also think of the many times we take walks down memory lane. When was the last time you really thought about your childhood? What do you remember from it?

Some lyrics from the song “The Graduate” are as follows: “When you were younger you dreamed of being tall, but you discovered growing up just leaves you feeling small. When you were younger you saw all the world was yours, but you don’t have the same eyes and you cannot believe that any more” How often do we look back and see the things we have grown out of? I’m not talking about children’s programming or other things like that. What about how we look at people or the things we value?

As a child you often wouldn’t not judge or see the bad in people yet today that is usually the first things we think of! You also often valued things that seemed ridiculous or did not have actual monetary worth. What did our savior say about being child like?

Matthew 18:2-4 says, “And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them 3 and said, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.”

Whenever you look back at your childhood and life, I hope it can bring a smile to your face but just maybe it can also remind you of how we are to be like children. Sometimes the biggest lessons come from the smallest and unlikely places like a child teaching an adult. I have purposely put a children’s word search in the bulletin this week to go with the article. Maybe the exercise of looking for words and the words themselves can cause us to look back and learn.
