Overcoming Our Challenges & Adversities

Hebrews 12:1-2 says "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God."

So often in life we can become stumped by or run away from the challenges and adversities we encounter. Yes there are a great many things we will not be able solve nor will we always be able to overcome obstacles solely on our own. I think we know this but I feel it is worth repeating. Don't be afraid to ask for help, especially from your church family (Gal. 6:2-3)

I think the Hebrews writer so perfectly calls for each person to lay aside not just the "obvious" or "big" hindrances but "every". Now that is a lot of work and reflection put on each of us, but when were we told this would be easy? The title of this article should reflect the difficulty of such an endeavor: an endeavor that is worth every bit of pain, every bit of work, and every small victory.

Each of us should be confident in facing such matters as long as our confidence is well placed. In fact, amidst anything we deal with we can find peace as well as confidence to run the race set before us.

John 16:33 says, "I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world." It is because of Christ that I am able to not just say, "We can have confidence and peace" but rather, "We do have the eternal, indestructible confidence and peace of our Savior and God. It is when one is fully equipped with this reality that adversity and challenges are truly overcome."
