We are
Watterson Trail
Church of Christ

F.R.I.E.N.D.S

From the desk of
Ben Rominske, minister

As we have planned and prepared for this Sunday of fellowship, I have had a lot things on my mind, but one comes quite clearly to me: a song from VBS/pew packers. The lyrics to part of this song are as follows: “Shake a friend’s hand, shake a hand next to ya. Shake a friend’s hand and sing along. Give someone a hug, give a hug next to ya. Give someone a hug, and sing along, Give a high five, give a five next to ya. Give a high five and sing along.”

Any day we get to spend gathered together is a good day and I am aware we all understand that. It is on days like today where we get to spend time with people from other churches in the area that I think of the aforementioned song. I imagine there will be a good amount of hand shaking, maybe a good amount of hugging too as I was told Watterson Trail is a huggin’ lovin’ church and maybe some high fives or fist bumps.

A warm welcome is something we strive to always do and I for one am grateful for that. I hope we all look forward to such times where many can be gathered in the Lord’s name. I also hope we do not stop the title of friends so short. Strangers are simply friends we haven’t gotten to know yet and there are a lot of people who need someone like you as his or her friend.

May today be a time of encouragement and joy, but most of all honor to our Lord. After all, it is Him who binds us in His blood.
