Wedding Wishes

From the desk of
Ben Rominske, minister

While I do not know the content of the wedding vows and ceremony, I always think about Ephesians 5:22-28 when it comes to marriage which says, “22 Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. 24 Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands. 25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, 26 that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, 27 so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. 28 In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.”

I do not claim to be a marriage expert but I do know God designed it and His inspired Word speaks to it in many places like Ephesians 5. Married or unmarried, widowed or young we all can learn from this passage by imitating Christ. After all, the church is Christ’s bride. We must do our part to not be like the adulterous Israel.

Zach and Lexi will continue to get many well wishes for their wedding, as I think we all desire for any couple wishing to come together with God’s blessing as He designed. May we be people who can love others like we are commanded, and love ourselves like we are commanded. Just because you’ve messed up doesn’t mean you’ve become too damaged.

Each and every one of us has value to the Lord. The greatest well wishes that have been given to any of us is the sacrifice of Christ which provides us with a path for reconciliation and sanctification.
