An Unlikely Duo

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

We often can think of various great/memorable duos. Maybe you think of players from sports like Peyton Manning and Marvin Harrison or Michael Jordan and Scotty Pippen. You may also think of people in television or other entertainment like Chandler and Joey or Shaggy and Scooby-Doo. Whoever they might be, you know of them and understand they are iconic.

It might not always be something we think about with the Bible but there are many we could find in scripture as well. David and Jonathan might be a popular one as we talked about them recently. Paul and Barnabas might be another one you think of given their evangelistic efforts together. What about John and Peter?

John and Peter are both known quite well respectively. John wrote 5 books of the NT, Peter is attributed 2, John was the disciple whom Jesus loved and a son of thunder, Peter was the impulsive one who walked on water. We actually see them together in passages like Luke 22:8, Acts 3:1-8, 4:19-21, 8:13-15.

Peter seems to do more talking than John in what we have recorded, even in Acts 3:6 where after they are addressed by the infirmed man it is Peter who speaks. Yet, in Acts 4:13 the people saw the boldness of both men. This is not to say that John was silent all the time, clearly he had a lot to say in his life from all of the writings we have.

Together they seemed to make a great team for spreading the Gospel in the early Church. May we remember how together God can use our various talents for His glory and that our weaknesses can be the very strength which God uses for His gain.

"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates."
