Wedding Bells

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

“1 Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. 2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3 For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them,” (Matt 25:1-3).

This weekend Abby and I will have attended our second wedding in almost a month with a third (Kaela and Easton’s) we will be celebrating at Watterson Trail soon. I for one, have been thinking a lot about the Biblical topic of marriage (I am a preacher after all). One of the more plentiful occurrences of this is with God and Israel’s relationship. Hosea the prophet even demonstrated it with his own marriage.

Weddings are almost always filled with great joy, laughter, tears from both, and a lot of smiles and love. Apparently one reason bells used to be rung after a wedding was to spread the news of the great occasion! How often are we like that with various things in our Christian walks? Namely, the baptism of a new soul in Christ. I hope in the future we get more opportunities to show the joy and love that is tied to following Jesus.

All these weddings also cause me to think of my own marriage. For those that are not married you too can reflect as I have because my thoughts have been about we can center our house and family around God more. Let each of us think about that carefully. After all, the bridegroom is coming. We must strive to be like the wise, lest we too be caught off guard like the five without oil.

Matthew 24:32-33

"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. "
