Certainty

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

“Who am I that the highest King

Would welcome me?

I was lost but He brought me in

Oh, His love for m

Free at last, He has ransomed me

His grace runs deep

While I was a slave to sin

Jesus died for me

Yes, He died for me

Who the Son sets free

Oh, is free indeed

I'm a child of God

Yes, I am”

Written by Fielding/Morgan

I hope and pray that you have certainty in your salvation. Christ died once and for all (Heb. 7:27, 10:10). If you have questions I would love to sit down and study together. While it is bewildering that our Lord and Creator of the Universe died for seemingly not that important us, allow the ever-flowing love of that sacrifice remind you of your value and of the certainty of the cross.

World

A prayer for the world:

Dear God, Creator and Almighty. We know you made this world and we know, no matter who is in control you have all authority. People continue to hurt others, unfortunate disasters happen, and many are left in pain and suffering. We know You and Your Word, living in the blood of Your Son is the answer. May we do our part to exemplify that and spread not just good news but the best. Amen.

Matthew 24:32-33

"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. "
