Between Love and Madness

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

What kind of title and/or bulletin article is this?? Well, it's a reflection on the holiday many have just celebrated, Valentine's Day, and the anticipated time of college basketball, March Madness. We are literally in between a time of love and madness. So what does that then have to do with God or our faith? A LOT!!

Maybe you can see where I am going with this, as we know that God so loved the world, we know God is love, and we know people will know Christ's followers if they love. Out of the things Paul mentions the greatest is love. We get that.

It is that love, which was shown in Christ's self-sacrifice that leads us to tie in madness. Not that our God is crazy, far from it. But it is a feeling of madness we might get when we view that sacrifice in view of our own selves. We are imperfect, look at how awful Israel was in continually following the Lord.

In the wilderness with Moses they wanted to abandon it all, in conquering Canaan they did not listen, they continued to turn away from God and were sent judges, they turned, seemingly, further in the time of the divided kingdom and were taken away into captivity. Not to belabor the point, but even crucifying the Son of God.

Yet, with even more examples than I mentioned evidencing to our sinfulness. He still chose to die for you, me, for all of human-kind! We are worth that to Him. Thanks be to Lord Almighty with all grace that we get to live between love and madness.
