Just For Today

I have sang many devo songs, hymns, and I assume you have as well. No one is promised tomorrow, but some people focus on that more than others. Whether it is our age, current difficulties, current successes, we tend to either concentrate on what we will do tomorrow or the face that there aren't many tomorrows left. Regardless I think the words "Father God" are encouraging.

"Father God, just for today, Help me walk the narrow way. Help me stand when I might fall. Give me the strength to hear Your call. Father God, just for tonight, Hold my hand, and hold it tight. Fill my head with thoughts of You And bring me home when life is through. Father God, be with me now, I'll live for You, please show me how I'll serve Your name in all I do. Take my life, I give it to You"

When I was younger I did not understand why the lyrics said just for today. Why not ask for more help? After all, He is all-powerful. It is because when we wake in the morning, today is all we have. It is all we can promise as we hope for more the next day. Now, that might sound a bit sad or depressing but that is not the case! We know to live is Christ and to die is gain (Phil 1:21). In fact I am writing this with the view that it should be both encouraging and empowering.

Whatever we go through remember first and foremost we are not alone (1 Cor 10:13, Heb 4:15), and equally as important is that we can do this with our Savior (Phil. 4:13) ! We can make it through one singular day, whatever we are struggling with. If we are blessed for tomorrow we will do it again, not because we are that strong, nor because we are just that great. It is because He is not just that strong, He is infinitely great and infinitely strong. He is our God and we are His people. So, Lord willing tomorrow, get up and say, "Today, help me walk that narrow way."

MEMBERS

- Health: Ann Zeitz, JoNell Carter, Louis Massey, Faye Welter, Anita Isenberg, JoAnn Brewer
- Dennis Ellison while feeling a bit better he is back in therapy for his breathing.
- Dennis Clinton continues to deal with health issues but has been working on getting back and was feeling decent last week.
- Anita Isenberg her and Dan have been going through a lot with a new “power chair” and may other thing to facilitate its use. We pray these things are a help and improvement for them.

EXTENDED FAMILY & FRIENDS

- Howard Babcock the son-in-law of Dorthy is dealing with dementia and her daughter is helping with him.
- Doy Auberson (Myrtle’s brother-in-law) is undergoing treatment.
- Colleen Albright (Abby’s grandmother) has been released, doing some physical therapy and getting to walk more
- JoNell Carter’s great-grand daughter Pray for the success of the treatments and her continued health.
- Derby Weekend: Pray for safety and prudence for those visiting and local. The 150th will likely bring even more buzz and traffic to town!
